

Bursaries in Honour of Rose Briscoe

Information Sheet

About the Bursary

ONA Local 34 is pleased to offer its members three (3) bursaries of $500.00 each in honour of Rose Briscoe.

Rose Briscoe, an Operating Room RN, was an original founding member of Queensway General Hospital ONA Local 34 in 1973. She served as the first Local President and was widely respected as a strong and dedicated leader in labour relations.

In 1985, Rose became ONA Provincial President. She also served on the Board of Directors for several hospitals and colleges. Rose passed away in August 2021.

Local 34 honours her nursing labour relations legacy by supporting members who wish to further their education in labour relations.
